Preamble

When in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for a community to seize upon the lawful avenues afforded by our government and therein craft a future that counters the inevitable migration of its people, we, the petitioners, find an uncommon resolve. Thus was born the City of St. George—not merely a collection of homes or neighborhoods but the embodiment of a vision deeply rooted in our unyielding Faith, cherished values, and steadfast dedication to a sustainable government. It is our solemn duty, owed to all who will come after us, to lay the foundation of a legacy that will inspire through generations unborn.

Our movement faced an array of rebuffs from every level of power and influence, its wisdom deeming our quest untenable. In the face of these trials, we not only found resolve we found victory drawing inspiration from exemplary communities where people triumph over bureaucracy.

Despite the clamor of dissent and the battering of personal vilification, we stand firm in our belief: the establishment of the City of St. George is imperative for the prosperity that awaits our Parish. Our founding principles are thus declared:

- The essentiality of Faith and family as the cornerstones of societal triumph.
- The sacred right to petition governing bodies for communal reform.
- The act of voting as the purest expression of democracy.
- A vision for government that is lean, localized, and accountable.
- The paramount virtue of accountability and vigilant citizenry.
- The resolute embrace of constructive change.

In summation, we aver that the City of St. George shall serve as the beacon heralding transformative reforms in governance, setting the benchmark for the times yet to come.
